

NEMO AHEC Health Literacy Resources

Title	Category	Source	Qty	Purpose/Use
Communicating Public Health Information Effectively: A Guide for Practitioners.	book	Editors: Nelson, Brownson, Remington, Parvanta; American Public Health Association	1	A guide for practitioners including a step-by-step planning guide for communicating public health information
Health Literacy and Patient Safety: Help Patients Understand (2nd ed)	toolkit	AMA Foundation	3	In-depth manual for clinicians, CME available
Health Literacy from A to Z: Practical Ways to Communicate Your Health.	book	Author: Helen Osborne, Publisher: Jones and Bartlett Publishers	1	Book providing practical, cost-effective, time-efficient ways to improve health communication and patient understanding
Medicines To Help You (for) High Blood Pressure	book	FDA Office of Women's Health	1	A guide to help patients talk to their doctor, pharmacist, or nurse about their blood pressure medicines.
My Medicines: Women's Health: Take Time to Care	leaflet	FDA Office of Women's Health	1	A leaflet designed for patients to keep track of their medicines (includes a checklist and chart)
Plain Language Pediatric Patient Education, Handouts for Common Pediatric Topics	book of handouts	American Academy of Pediatrics	1	This book has 49 handouts (suitable for copying), each covering topics of interest to care givers of children.
Presenting Numbers, Tables, and Charts	book	Authors: Bigwood & Spore, Oxford Univ Press	1	This book gives advice on the simple steps it takes to transform data into readable, relevant information.
Readability Plus	software	Micro Power & Light	1	Readability software
Stylewriter software	software	StyleWriter USA	1	Software tool that proofs material for grammar, complex words, etc.
Teacher's Training Manual for What To Do For Senior Health	resource kit	Institute for Healthcare Advancement	1	Training manual to assist people to find effective ways to distribute the book What To Do For Senior Health
Teacher's Training Manual for What To Do For Teen Health	resource kit	Institute for Healthcare Advancement	1	Training manual to assist people to find effective ways to distribute the book What To Do For Teen Health
Tips for First Responders (2nd ed)	notebook	Center for Development and Disability, Univ of NM	1	This is an example of clear, easy-to-read, color-coded information in a user-friendly format. Also, it is a good example of the use of headings and bullets.

NEMO AHEC Health Literacy Resources

Title	Category	Source	Qty	Purpose/Use
What To Do For Healthy Teeth	book	Institute for Healthcare Advancement	1	Book for all ages to help them take care of their teeth
What To Do For Senior Health	book	Institute for Healthcare Advancement	1	Book for seniors (62 +) and people interested in the health of seniors
What To Do For Teen Health	book	Institute for Healthcare Advancement	1	Book for parents and others interested in the health of teens
What To Do When Your Child Gets Sick	book	Institute for Healthcare Advancement	1	Book for parents and others who take care of children
What To Do When You're Having a Baby	book	Institute for Healthcare Advancement	1	Book for pregnant women and other interested in the health of expectant women